

Stonebow Group Training Certificate (GTC)

“If you have a need to certify your trainers to design, deliver and evaluate to a best practice standard, then this is the tool for you”

You would attend this certification programme if you ...

- Find yourself struggling to prepare course materials in time?
- Like to go with the flow in your workshops but sometimes feel your delegates need more structure?
- Wonder why some people love your programmes whilst others seem impossible to satisfy?
- Want to better explain and assess the real aims and objectives of a programme or session?
- Dread those silences, when you ask questions and no one answers?
- Sometimes feel that certain people may not have learned as much as they could?
- Search for new & interesting ways to engage your group and stimulate their learning in more creative ways?
- Sometimes you experience groups that are hard to manage?
- Constantly seek new exercises and ways to get full engagement from every individual?
- Struggle to manage the complexity of certain ‘bigger’ exercises?
- Wish you could find better ways to get your participants to implement what they have learned?

What are the benefits?

- ✓ An Internationally recognised certificate in the field of training and development
- ✓ Increase in your professionalism, confidence and credibility as a trainer
- ✓ Qualify your in house trainers to design and deliver bespoke training solutions, which are aligned to your business objectives and can save you time and money.
